LEARNING IN OUR CLASSROOM:

Reading: Students have taken a break from their Reading/Literature textbooks and are now reading from a novel, The Face on the Milk Carton.

Writing: We are continuing to learn how to write a well written paragraph with opening and closing sentences as well as adding detail to our writing. Students are beginning to use transitions in their writing as well.

Vocabulary: Students are continuing to practice their vocabulary words and learning to use them correctly within sentences. Students need to understand how the word is used rather than just memorizing the definition of each word.

Math: We are moving right along with Common Core Math. Students are learning a lot with the more one-on-one attention they are receiving.

5th gr History: Fifth graders are studying the different routes explorers have taken to the New World.

6th gr. Geography: Sixth graders are studying the geography of the United States and then soon, Canada. They are also practicing their states and capitals as well and there will be a test soon on these.

Science: Both grades will begin learning about our Earth's atmosphere, weather, and climate.
